A COLD WATER PAINT

A SUBSTITUTE FOR JIL PAINT AND WHITEWASH.

AN EXCELLENT FIRE RETARDANT AND DISINFECTANT.

Especially Designed For INSIDE Work on . . Pactories and Public Buildings

It is a dry powder which can be prepared for use by simply stirring n COLD WATER and can be apolied by anyone and will always protuce good work.

It is VERY WHITE, extremely redective and bardens on a wall like stone and will take any tint. It will last for years, and is unaffected by gases. One cost covers better than two coats of oil paint or whitewash.

It can be used on any surface and or all classes of work, even for the anest decorating. It will not rub, scale or crack, nor ▼ill it soften with age or discolor.

It will not set in the mixing vessel, m fact it improves by standing a few

It can be used to good advantage over old whitewash without scraping. IT DRIES OUT WHITE AFTER BEING WET.

It is cheaper than whitewash, durability considered.

Is is supplied in barrels from 300 o 400 lbs., also in boxes of 100, 50 und 25 pounds.

Outside Indurine!

This is for CUTSIDE Work

Such as Fences, Outbuildings and Laborer's Quarters. It is a thick paste to be diluted with cold water; stands rain and exposure as well as oil paint, and costs but a fraction as much. It is fire-resisting as it contains no oil, and has no equal as a light reflector in dark basements, damp cellurs and similar places. It is supplied in colors.

COMMITTED FOR ROBBERY

A Japanese Confesses to the Crime Valuables Recovered

A Japanese prisoner named Yasi-taki was brought down in irons from Lahaina on the steamer Kinau yesterday in charge of Detective Toma. Yasitaki was committed at Labaina for robbing Kirauka, a fellow countryman, of $300 and a gold watch. Yasitaki was arrested in one of the numerous Japanese hotels in this city. The watch besides $50 was recovered. He confessed to the robbery and told how he had concealed the money. After entering Kirauka's store he found a trunk which he knew contained money. He took the trunk in the canefield and broke store and bought a seventy-five cent tin of tard. He emptied half the lard, giving it to a Japanere, and put the money in the lard so that it would not jingle. In Walluku he changed some of the gold and sent $80 to friends in Japan. It was his intention of leaving the country when arrested. When Yasitaki appeared for trial in the Circuit Court at Labaina the other day the watch and money could not be found, although they were on the Judge's desk prior to the opening of the court. There were only five persons in the court-room at the time. A search was instituted and every nook and corner of the building was visited. After rummaging about for an hour and a ball the articles were found in a cor ner of the Judge's private office by Officer Simeons. The Judge felt relieved when the watch and money came to light again. It had evi-dently been hidden by some one.

SIX THOUSAND DOLLAR DEAL.

Such is the Price Paid by a Local Syndicate for a Valuable Recipe

Charles J. Wagner has been in Honolulu nearly two years, selling a preservative paint called the "Peerless," and he has sold $10,000 worth of the article. Lately Mr. Wagner has sold the recipe and right of manufacture in these islands to a local syndicate for $6000. H. P. Walton, one of the buyers, is to be manager of the new firm, and will be heard from in due time.

Mr. Wagner has, during his stay other enterprises, but his crowning success is in selling the industry already mentioned to practical men, who have had an opportunity of investigating the merits of the invention that he chiefly repre-
